Correction to:
Eating and Weight Disorders - Studies on Anorexia, Bulimia and Obesity
<https://doi.org/10.1007/s40519-021-01230-4>

The following sentence was missed out under the heading “Methods” in page 2 of the original publication.

Methodology of the research was following the protocol and using data collection tools previously developed in the articles [1] and [2].

Where [1] refers to:

Valente M, Renckens S, Bunders-Aelen J, Syurina E (2021) The #orthorexia community on Instagram. Eat Weight Disord. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40519-021-01157-w> and [2] refers to:

Valente M, Brenner R, Cesuroglu T, Bunders-Aelen J, Syurina E (2020) “And it snowballed from there”: The development of orthorexia nervosa from the perspective of people who self-diagnose. Appetite 155. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.appet.2020.104840>

Adding the same two aforementioned references on page 3, under Data Analysis paragraph, line 2, like this:

“After an overview of the downloaded posts and consultation of literature [1, 2]...”
